A photograph of a man in a yellow polo shirt smiling in a cluttered room. The walls are made of rough, grey material. A blue electric fan is mounted on the wall above him. To the left, a large fish is hanging on the wall. To the right, there are various items, including a striped cloth and a white plastic bag. The floor is covered with a large pile of fish. The text "It's fun" is overlaid in orange at the top.
